

Marius Țîmpău is a graduate of the "Ciprian Porumbescu" Art High School in Suceava (1998, class of Prof. Petru Vălan) and the "George Enescu" University of Arts – Iași (2003, Prof. Mihai Babii and Prof. Vasile Gavriș).

He has participated in numerous competitions and Olympiads where he achieved notable results, performed individual recitals, and taken part in masterclasses with world-renowned guitarists (Alexandre De Pau, Michel Sadanowski, Rafael Aguirre Miñardo, Andras Csaki, David Pavlovits). As a member of the "Alhambra" guitar quartet, he has given numerous recitals both in Romania and abroad.

From 1998 to 2007, he held the position of guitar teacher at the "Ciprian Porumbescu" Art High School in Suceava, and from 2007 to the present, he has been employed by the "Octav Băncilă" National Art College in Iași in the same position. With over 25 years of teaching experience, Prof. Marius Țîmpău has managed to accumulate an impressive number of awards at national and international Olympiads and competitions with his students, many of whom have been admitted to prestigious universities in Romania and abroad – the "George Enescu" University of Arts in Iași, the National University of Music in Bucharest, Columbus State University – U.S.A.